Attention Sophomores! If you are interested in seeing the half day programs CTC has to offer, there will be a field trip to Willow St CTC on Wednesday November 30 in the morning. The permission form is in the CTC folder under Materials on the Class of 2025 page and in the counseling office. Permission forms are due back in the counseling office on Monday November 14. Any questions, please see Mrs. Stoudt.

This is a reminder to all Seniors that you can invite any family member who is a veteran or active member of the military to be our honored guest(s) at our Veterans' Day Assembly on Friday, November 11th at 9:30 AM in the auditorium. Please see Mrs. Ridley in the main office if you are a senior planning to enter the military after graduation and to turn in your RSVP forms.

Students: All blankets should be placed in student lockers or student backpacks prior to the start of first period at 7:30 am and should remain there until the end of the school day at 2:30pm. Sweatshirts, light jackets, and dressing in layers are all appropriate options as we approach colder months. No blankets should be seen in class or the halls once the first period has begun. Thank you!

MT Ski Club still has a few openings left for the Vermont Trip to Stowe this year. Registration for Stowe, Vermont has been extended to Nov. 15. Check out www.mtski.com for trip details.

Students Against Starvation is holding a Thanksgiving food drive. You can bring non-perishable items to your homeroom classes starting now until November 18th.

Mini-THON's Four Diamonds Showcase is back and better than ever! See teams and individuals compete against each other this January. Team and individual applications are live until Friday, November 11th. QR codes are posted outside Mr. Sneeringer's room (112) and Mr. Aiello's room (177) as well as on the Mini-THON wall. Don't delay, sign up today.

We hope many of you will plan to join us for the music and magic of William Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream! Magic, music, fairies, laughter, hippies, and a donkey - what's not to love?! Performances will be held in the High School auditorium on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, November 17-19 at 7:00 pm. Scan the QR code on the posters or buy your tickets at the door. $10 for adults and $8 for students. Don't worry about the Shakespeare - you'll definitely understand all the love and anger and insults! Plenty of drama to go around. Get your tickets now.

Interested in playing jazz? Sign up for the jazz bands this year! All instruments are welcome! Sign-up and audition information is available with the QR code on the jazz band wall across from the TV studio. Questions? See Mr. Schlosser in room 157 or Mr. Siegel in room 152.

Attention Seniors: Yearbook is looking for your childhood photographs of you and a classmate or a group of classmates for the Now and Then section of the yearbook. Re-create these childhood photos using your present-day selves. Please email your photographs to neffvue@gmail.com. Pictures must be submitted by Wednesday, November 30.

Any new or returning baseball player in grades 9-12 not involved in winter sports should meet in Coach McCarthy's room (137) immediately after school on Thursday, Nov. 10 to discuss the winter workout schedule.
