

Students: All blankets should be placed in student lockers or student backpacks prior to the start of first period at 7:30 am and should remain there until the end of the school day at 2:30pm. Sweatshirts, light jackets, and dressing in layers are all appropriate options as we approach colder months. No blankets should be seen in class or the halls once the first period has begun. Thank you!

Join Startup Club with guest speaker Jorge Guzman after school on Wednesday, November 30th in room 218. Dr. Guzman is an associate professor in the Management Division of Columbia Business School and a lecturer at the MIT Sloan School of Management. He was previously involved in the Boston startup ecosystem and has been an advisor to numerous startups on varied topics and to national policy agencies on the design of entrepreneurship ecosystems. We look forward to seeing you at Startup Club in room 218 on Wednesday, November 30th!

Attention, Musical Theater Enthusiasts!

Students who are interested in being a part of this spring's production of Beauty and the Beast -- please be sure you have joined the MTPA Schoology page for all the info you'll need. There is a place for you to shine either on stage or behind the scenes. Crews that you could participate in include Stage Crew, Build and Paint Crew, Costumes, Sound, Lighting, Makeup, and Props. There will be a MANDATORY pre-production meeting for all students interested in being part of the cast or crew on Monday, November 28th from 2:45-3:45 in the auditorium. At this meeting, you'll receive your audition paperwork and/or crew application. Auditions will be held after school on Tuesday, November 29th with callbacks the following day. Reach out to Mrs. Haldeman via Schoology or in room 140 with any questions.

The Rachel's Challenge Club is hosting a book drive for our district families who are in-need. All donated books will be collected and organized by the Rachel's Challenge Club and will be available to students and their families at the District Holiday Shoppe. If you are able, we are looking for books that can be separated by grade levels: Elementary, Intermediate, Middle School, and High School. Please bring your new and gently used books to the High School. There will be boxes located in the Main Office, and you may drop your book into the appropriate grade level bin.

The Holiday Shoppe will take place on Saturday, December 17, 2022, from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Manheim Township District Office. Thank you for your support!
